• Special to the Leader & Times The Kansas Children’s Service League (KCSL) will host the “Chair”ish the Children Special Event and Live Auction on Saturday at the Liberal Country Club. The event will begin at 6 p.m. with a social hour and auction preview featuring children’s chairs created by local students and professional artists. A buffet dinner and live auction will begin at 7 p.m. All proceeds will help KCSL further its mission to protect and promote the well-being of children in Seward County.

“KCSL has provided Head Start services in Seward County since the 1990s. In an effort to meet the changing needs of children and families, KCSL has expanded its services to include a variety of child abuse prevention programs and services,” said Jeff Pfingsten, Development Manager for KCSL. “Funds from “Chair”ish the Children will help us to continue to offer these services in Seward County – keeping our kids safe, families together, and our community strong.”

The event is sponsored by the Liberal Country Club.
