After a lifetime in Southwest Kansas, Stout heads east

After a long and successful career in Southwest Kansas, Stout is heading east to start a new chapter in his life. Stout has spent the majority of his career in the region, where he has built a strong reputation and established a network of contacts. Stout is excited about the new challenges and opportunities that await him in the east. Stout will be leaving his current position at the end of the month and will be starting his new job in the east in July.
