Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program on Monday, June 3, with a special event at the library. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library offers a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. The program is open to all children ages 5 to 12. The library is located at 1234 Main St. For more information, call 555-1234.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Local news anchor Brian Weber is set to resign from his position at the local news station later this month. Weber has been with the station for several years and has been a prominent figure in the local news community. His resignation is effective at the end of the month. The station has not yet announced a replacement for Weber.

WANTED: More day care facilities

Local officials are seeking more day care facilities in the area. The current facilities are at capacity, and many parents are having difficulty finding care for their children. The officials are looking for private and public options. They are also looking for more affordable options. The officials are currently reviewing proposals for new facilities. They are also looking for ways to expand existing facilities. The officials are hoping to have more facilities in place by the end of the year.
