

Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 672-436-4900 • Monday - Saturday
BRACE YOURSELF FOR VETERAN AMERICA'S FREE BEEFMAINS IN TOWN SQUARE

Pot growing trial: DAY 2
Witness reveals location of drug source in corn field

By KERRY BICE
Special to the Journal-World

Three federal drug agents, two of whom are members of the FBI's elite Joint Task Force, are conducting a trial in a corn field near Lawrence, Kan., to determine if growing marijuana plants in a field is a viable method of cultivation.

The agents, who are part of the FBI's Joint Task Force, are conducting a trial in a corn field near Lawrence, Kan., to determine if growing marijuana plants in a field is a viable method of cultivation.

The agents, who are part of the FBI's Joint Task Force, are conducting a trial in a corn field near Lawrence, Kan., to determine if growing marijuana plants in a field is a viable method of cultivation.

Area salesman falsely accused of trafficking

Special to the Journal-World

Lawrence, Kan., resident, accused of trafficking marijuana, was cleared of all charges after a judge ruled that the evidence was insufficient to prove his guilt.

The man, who is a local businessman, was arrested in Lawrence, Kan., after being accused of trafficking marijuana. He was held in custody for several days before being released on bond.

The judge's ruling came after a lengthy trial in which the prosecution failed to present sufficient evidence to prove the man's guilt. The man was cleared of all charges and is free to return to his home and business.

Huekamp to host town halls

Special to the Journal-World

Gov. Tom Tate will host a series of town hall meetings across the state to discuss the state's budget and other issues.

The town hall meetings will be held in various locations across the state, including Lawrence, Kan. The meetings will provide an opportunity for citizens to voice their concerns and provide input on the state's budget and other issues.

Gov. Tate will be joined by other state officials at the meetings. The meetings are expected to be held in the coming weeks.

New park under construction

Special to the Journal-World

Lawrence, Kan., is set to receive a new park, which is currently under construction. The park will feature a variety of recreational facilities, including a playground, walking trails, and a picnic area.

The new park is located in a central area of Lawrence, Kan. It is expected to be completed in the coming months. The park will provide a great place for families and friends to enjoy the outdoors.

The city of Lawrence is proud to be providing this new park for its residents. The park is a testament to the city's commitment to providing high-quality recreational facilities for its citizens.

City plans repairs to West 15th Street

Special to the Journal-World

The City of Lawrence is planning to repair West 15th Street, which has been damaged by heavy traffic and weather. The repairs will include repaving the road, repairing the curbs, and improving the drainage system.

The repairs are expected to be completed in the coming months. The city is committed to providing safe and well-maintained roads for its residents.

The repairs will improve the appearance of the street and make it safer for drivers and pedestrians. The city is grateful for the support of its residents during this project.

Keating
Your daily news & views for 127 years

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY AUGUST 21, 2013
Your daily news & views for 127 years

ROAD CONSTRUCTION AHEAD

Welfare can pay more than that entry-level job

Special to the Journal-World

High unemployment rates have led to a situation where welfare payments in some areas exceed the wages of entry-level jobs. This has caused concern among employers and policymakers.

The issue is particularly acute in areas with high unemployment rates. In some cases, welfare payments are higher than the wages of entry-level jobs, which makes it difficult for employers to attract workers.

Policymakers are looking for ways to address this issue. Some are proposing to reduce welfare payments, while others are proposing to increase the minimum wage. The issue remains a topic of debate.

3 teens charged in death of Australian player

Special to the Journal-World

Three teenagers have been charged with the death of an Australian soccer player. The player died after a game in Lawrence, Kan. The teenagers are accused of using force to remove the player from the field.

The player, who was a professional soccer player, died of a heart attack after a game in Lawrence, Kan. The teenagers are accused of using force to remove the player from the field.

The teenagers are currently in custody and are facing charges of assault and murder. The case is being handled by local law enforcement.

School's back in session, after a long summer

Special to the Journal-World

Lawrence, Kan., schools are back in session after a long summer break. Students are returning to school with excitement and enthusiasm.

The schools are providing a variety of programs and activities to engage students. The schools are committed to providing a high-quality education for all students.

The schools are also providing support for students who may be having difficulty adjusting to school. The schools are committed to helping all students succeed.

Gov. Brown and Sen. Douglas, Adams, L. set to meet

Special to the Journal-World

Gov. Tom Tate, Sen. Douglas, and Sen. Adams are set to meet in Lawrence, Kan. to discuss the state's budget and other issues.

The meeting is expected to be held in the coming weeks. The meeting will provide an opportunity for the officials to discuss the state's budget and other issues.

The meeting is a key part of the state's budget process. The officials are committed to providing a high-quality budget for the state.

A new study shows that...

Special to the Journal-World

A new study has shown that... (The text is partially obscured and difficult to read.)

Adrian's death...

Special to the Journal-World

Adrian's death... (The text is partially obscured and difficult to read.)