

Little World's Fair in Kismet starts Saturday
By Bob Kates

The annual Little World's Fair in Kismet will get underway on the 10th Street fairgrounds Saturday.

The Kismet High School Reunion will take place at 6 p.m. Saturday

The Kismet High School Reunion will take place at 6 p.m. Saturday at the Kismet High School.

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 2014
Your daily news & views for $28 per year

City approves 3,798 mill levy increase

2015 Budget $36.1 million
2015 Mill levy $1.646

The Kismet City Commission has approved a 3.798 percent increase in the city's mill levy for the 2015 fiscal year. The commission also approved a 2015 budget of $36.1 million.

Voters again turn down Turpin school bond

On Tuesday night, voters in the Turpin school district rejected a $10 million bond issue. This is the second time in two years that voters have turned down the bond issue.

Former tech director of Lenexa charged with wire fraud, theft

A former technology director at Lenexa has been charged with wire fraud and theft. The charges are related to a scheme that involved the company's internal systems.

1 voter cast ballot under Kansas dual system

A voter in Kansas has cast a ballot under the state's dual election system. This is the first time this has happened since the system was implemented.

Soroptimists say thanks to Brianna Headrick

The Soroptimist International of Kismet has held a thank-you event for Brianna Headrick. She has been instrumental in the organization's efforts to support women in the community.

Crested Butte to be Bud Light's 'Whatever' town

Crested Butte, Colorado, has been named Bud Light's "Whatever" town. This is a recognition of the town's laid-back atmosphere and its popularity among beer drinkers.

1 / 1