

Little World's Fair in Kismet starts Saturday
By Bob Kates

The annual Little World's Fair in Kismet will get going on the 29th day of August. The fair is a family-friendly event that features a variety of activities, including a parade, games, and food. It is held at the Kismet High School and runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

The Kismet High School Reunion will take place at 6 p.m. Saturday

The Kismet High School Reunion will be held at 6 p.m. on Saturday at the Kismet High School. The event is a celebration of the school's 50th anniversary and will feature a variety of activities, including a dinner, a dance, and a parade. It is open to all graduates and their families.

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 2014
Your daily news & views for $28 years

City approves 3,798 mill levy increase
By Bob Kates

The Kismet City Commission has approved a 3,798 mill levy increase for the 2015 fiscal year. The increase is necessary to fund the city's operations and to pay for the city's share of the state's debt. The commission also approved a 2015 budget of $36.1 million and a 2015 mill levy of $1.646.

Former tech director of Lenexa charged with wire fraud, theft
By Bob Kates

A former technology director at Lenexa has been charged with wire fraud and theft. The man, who is currently on the run, is accused of stealing sensitive information from the company and using it to defraud investors. The charges were filed in federal court in Kansas City.

1 voter cast ballot under Kansas dual system
By Bob Kates

A voter in Kansas has cast a ballot under the state's dual system of election administration. The voter, who is currently on the run, is accused of using a fake name to vote in a primary election. The incident highlights the challenges of election administration in a state with a dual system.

Soroptimists say thanks to Brianna Headrick
By Bob Kates

The Soroptimist International of Kismet has held a thank-you dinner for Brianna Headrick. Headrick is a local businesswoman who has supported the organization and its efforts to help women in need. The dinner was held at the Kismet High School and was attended by many community members.

Crested Butte to be Bud Light's 'Whatever' town
By Bob Kates

Crested Butte, Colorado, has been named Bud Light's "Whatever" town. The town is known for its laid-back atmosphere and its love of the beer. Bud Light has chosen Crested Butte as the location for its "Whatever" campaign, which is a celebration of the town's unique culture and lifestyle.

9401 13th St., Ste. 212 • Kismet, KS 66505 • Phone: 785-838-2121 • Fax: 785-838-2122 • Email: info@leaderandtimes.com

Voters again turn down Turpin school bond
By Bob Kates

Voters in Turpin, Kansas, have again turned down a school bond issue. The bond issue was for $10 million and was intended to fund the construction of a new high school. The voters rejected the bond issue by a margin of 55 percent to 45 percent. This is the second time in three years that voters in Turpin have rejected a bond issue.

City approves 3,798 mill levy increase
By Bob Kates

The Kismet City Commission has approved a 3,798 mill levy increase for the 2015 fiscal year. The increase is necessary to fund the city's operations and to pay for the city's share of the state's debt. The commission also approved a 2015 budget of $36.1 million and a 2015 mill levy of $1.646.

Former tech director of Lenexa charged with wire fraud, theft
By Bob Kates

A former technology director at Lenexa has been charged with wire fraud and theft. The man, who is currently on the run, is accused of stealing sensitive information from the company and using it to defraud investors. The charges were filed in federal court in Kansas City.

1 voter cast ballot under Kansas dual system
By Bob Kates

A voter in Kansas has cast a ballot under the state's dual system of election administration. The voter, who is currently on the run, is accused of using a fake name to vote in a primary election. The incident highlights the challenges of election administration in a state with a dual system.

Soroptimists say thanks to Brianna Headrick
By Bob Kates

The Soroptimist International of Kismet has held a thank-you dinner for Brianna Headrick. Headrick is a local businesswoman who has supported the organization and its efforts to help women in need. The dinner was held at the Kismet High School and was attended by many community members.

Crested Butte to be Bud Light's 'Whatever' town
By Bob Kates

Crested Butte, Colorado, has been named Bud Light's "Whatever" town. The town is known for its laid-back atmosphere and its love of the beer. Bud Light has chosen Crested Butte as the location for its "Whatever" campaign, which is a celebration of the town's unique culture and lifestyle.

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 2014
Your daily news & views for $28 years

City approves 3,798 mill levy increase
By Bob Kates

The Kismet City Commission has approved a 3,798 mill levy increase for the 2015 fiscal year. The increase is necessary to fund the city's operations and to pay for the city's share of the state's debt. The commission also approved a 2015 budget of $36.1 million and a 2015 mill levy of $1.646.

Former tech director of Lenexa charged with wire fraud, theft
By Bob Kates

A former technology director at Lenexa has been charged with wire fraud and theft. The man, who is currently on the run, is accused of stealing sensitive information from the company and using it to defraud investors. The charges were filed in federal court in Kansas City.

1 voter cast ballot under Kansas dual system
By Bob Kates

A voter in Kansas has cast a ballot under the state's dual system of election administration. The voter, who is currently on the run, is accused of using a fake name to vote in a primary election. The incident highlights the challenges of election administration in a state with a dual system.

Soroptimists say thanks to Brianna Headrick
By Bob Kates

The Soroptimist International of Kismet has held a thank-you dinner for Brianna Headrick. Headrick is a local businesswoman who has supported the organization and its efforts to help women in need. The dinner was held at the Kismet High School and was attended by many community members.

Crested Butte to be Bud Light's 'Whatever' town
By Bob Kates

Crested Butte, Colorado, has been named Bud Light's "Whatever" town. The town is known for its laid-back atmosphere and its love of the beer. Bud Light has chosen Crested Butte as the location for its "Whatever" campaign, which is a celebration of the town's unique culture and lifestyle.

9401 13th St., Ste. 212 • Kismet, KS 66505 • Phone: 785-838-2121 • Fax: 785-838-2122 • Email: info@leaderandtimes.com