

PERRYTON, Texas – Harold Heiers, 84, died Thursday, Nov. 28, 2013.

He was born Jan. 1, 1929, to Henry and Annabell Heiers in Balko, Okla.

He married Violent Fling May 9, 1993, in Perryton, Texas. She survives.

He was a farmer.

He was a member of the Crossroad Bible Fellowship Church.

Other survivors include two sons, Wesley Heiers and wife, Cheryl, Wister, Okla.; and Neal Heiers, Liberal; one daughter, Marjorie Campbell, Fresno, Calif.; and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Lorene Heiers; and two sons, Stanley Heiers and Tommy Heiers.

o Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Crossroads Bible Fellowship Church in Balko, with the Reve. James Epp presiding.

Memorials are suggested to Crossroad Bible Fellowship Church of Balko or the donor's choice.

Friends and family may sign the guestbook at www.boxwellbros.com.

