

ELMWOOD, Okla. – Clyde Swanson Pugh, 95, died Friday, Jan. 31, 2014, at the Bellevue Nursing Home in Oklahoma City.

He was born Nov. 11, 1918, to Claude Swanson and Amanda Alma (Law) Pugh in Balko, Okla.

He married Mary Gregory May 23, 1975. She survives.

He graduated from high school.

He was a farmer and rancher.

He is also survived by his sons, Gary, Kingston, Okla., Craig, Balko, and Rocky, Edmond, Okla.; one sister, Mada Hagen, Perryton, Texas; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and many relatives and friends.

• Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Balko Community Faith Church with Jim Fox and Fred Huff presiding.

Burial will be at the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested to the Balko Community Faith Church.