

Gene Shuck, 75, died Friday, Sept. 8, 2017 at the Stevens County Hospital in Hugoton.

He was born July 7, 1942 to Sheldon (SR) and Ruby L. (Sides) Shuck in Liberal.

He married Jessie Perry Jan. 28, 1962 in Hugoton. She survives.

He enjoyed hunting and fishing with family and friends. He enjoyed skiing and snowmobiling with his family.

He also enjoyed tinkering with old pickups.

Survivors also include sons: Troy Shuck and wife, Shawna, Liberal, Clifford Shuck and wife, Paula, Hugoton, and Richy Shuck and wife, Nora, Hugoton; brother, Gordon Shuck and wife Shirley, Alberta, Canada; sisters, Flossie Green, Corsicana, Texas, and Reta Evans and husband, Dallas, Derby; 10 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters: Myrtle McCulley, Nettie Rogers, Edna Cunningham, Dorene Johnson, Velda Williams, and June Garner; and brother, Ervin Shuck.

- Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12, 2017 at Lonestar Church.

Burial will follow at the Lonestar Cemetery in Hugoton.

Friends may call from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. today at Pauls-Robson Funeral Home in Hugoton.

A memorial has been established for Heritage Christian Academy or Pheasant Heaven Charities. Memorials may be mailed to Paul's-Robson Funeral Home, PO Box 236-Hugoton, KS 67951.