

Hard collision results in only minor injuries

Monday, 11 March 2013 10:07

ABOVE: This Ford Ranger pickup was eastbound on West Second Street around 4:35 Friday afternoon, when it was T-boned by a Dodge Ram pickup, left, that was southbound on Pershing Avenue driven by a 75-year-old male, according to Liberal Police Capt. Pat McClurg. A 28-year-old female that was driving the Ford received minor injuries and was transported to Southwest Medical Center as a precaution. The male was uninjured in the mishap.

L&T photos/John Watson