

L&T staff report

Less than an hour after the Leader & Times was printed today, Jack Carlile had removed his personal likes of other facebook pages showing scantily clad women from his facebook page.

Today's paper included a story about Carlile's facebook page and the unusually large number of likes. The story also included Carlile's personal facebook page which had links to "Erotic Body of Satisfaction," "Mi Casillero," and "Boobs and Thongs," facebook pages that featured images of a near-pornographic nature.

The story invited readers to check Carlile's page for themselves, but he has since removed those three likes from his list of favorites.

Screen shots were taken of his page with those likes as verification prior to Carlile's removal that occurred by 1:30 p.m. today.

Carlile is a candidate for Liberal City Commission and finished fifth in a primary Feb. 26, seven votes away from fourth. The top four in the April 2 general election will earn seats on the Commission.

To see the story that was released prior to Carlile pulling the links to semi-pornographic material from his facebook page, click here.