

Turpin, Okla., children find Easter eggs galore

Monday, 01 April 2013 10:02

ABOVE: Turpin children take to the football field in the Beaver County community Saturday morning for the town's annual Easter egg hunt to gather the thousands of eggs spotted throughout the field. For more pictures, see page 3A.

LEFT: Another girl picks up an egg at this stop, careful not to drop her sunglasses, and heads off to find more. Thousands of eggs were placed throughout the football field for youngsters to find. L&T photos/Robert Pierce