

Giovanni Macedo (Zangara), closest to the camera, Sheldon Padilla (Guiteau), Francisco Morales (Booth), Lewis D. Mize (Czolgosz), Austin Applebee (Byck), Stephanie Drymalski (Moore) and Juan Carlos Contreras (Hinckley) rehearse a scene from the musical "Assassins" Wednesday evening at the Showcase Theatre at the college. Tickets are now available for the Seward County Community College/Area Technical School musical production of the "Assassins" at 7:30 p.m., April 12, 13 and 14. "Assassins" is a musical with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim and is based on the book by John Weidman. This murderous carnival game portrays men and women who attempt to assassinate the presidents of the United States, some successfully and some unsuccessfully. The musical reflects the music of each era. The musical is recommended for adult audiences only because of the content of the musical. Tickets are $8 (sides) and $10 (center) and may be purchased in advance by calling 620-417-1451 or e-mailing terri.barnes@sccc.edu. Tickets may also be picked up at the Shank Humanities Building, 1801 N. Kansas, Liberal. Seating may be limited the night of production.
L&T photo/Earl Watt