

```
function get_style11540 () { return "none"; } function end11540_ () { document.getElementById('elastomer11540').style.display = get_style11540(); }
```

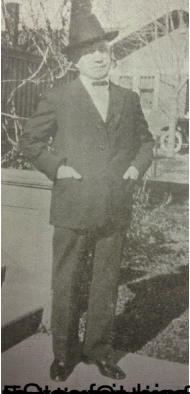

This grand residence at 506 N. Sherman Ave. in Liberal (which still stands and is lived in by owners Rick and Chris Yearick) was built by Abe and Harriet Stoufer in 1906. Abe was the editor of the Liberal News and served as postmaster. The home features considerable rooms, a double staircase and a third-story ballroom. It has been said that when the Stoufers entertained in the summer, all windows and doors were thrown open, and people danced and laughed the night away. Margaret Stoufer is on the balcony. The Liberal News became the Southwest Daily Times, which is the Leader & Times. Today, the paper publishes its Volume No. 127; issue No. 1. Photo courtesy "Liberal and Seward County" by Lidia Hook-Gray

Dedicated to the interests of the Southwest

L&T staff report For a community to take hold in the late 1880s, it required legitimate businesses to take up residence to show that there is a commitment to the town's future.

One highly-sought business among the communities in Seward County was a newspaper.

A pennsylvanian by the name of Abe Stoufer made his way to Fargo Springs in 1885 to visit his brother, and it was soon learned that Stoufer was a newspaper man.

For a full list of the names of the men who have worked for the company, please contact the company at 127 years old. The company is the oldest business in the county, and it has been in operation since 1886. The company is located in the town of [redacted]. The company is a family-owned business, and it has been passed down from generation to generation. The company is a well-known name in the community, and it has a long history of providing quality products and services. The company is a source of pride for the community, and it is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the people who have worked for the company over the years. The company is a great example of a business that has stood the test of time, and it is a source of inspiration for many people. The company is a great example of a business that has been successful for over 127 years, and it is a testament to the power of hard work and dedication. The company is a great example of a business that has been successful for over 127 years, and it is a testament to the power of hard work and dedication.

John Wright Spink is a unit that choice of rail was necessary to ensure complete delivery