

This home on north Sherman, built in 1906, has seen its share of weather through the years, including the snow that starting falling last night through this morning in Liberal. The official precipitation accumulation was only a “trace” as of 9 this morning. L&T photo/Earl Watt