

This young lady receives a free haircut Saturday at the Kansas Sampler Festival at a animal petting farm in Light Park. Area residents got to attend the festival Saturday and Sunday as it was Liberal's second year to host the statewide show which offers exhibits and attractions displaying the sights and attractions of rural life across the state. For more photos of the event, see PAGE 5. L&T photo/Chris Linenbroker

Seward County Commission Chair Ada Linenbroker and Liberal Police Chief Al Sill battle two youngsters in a game of duck racing Saturday during activities at the Kansas Sampler Festival. One has to hand pump water into the troughs to move a toy duck down and back to the starting line in order to win the race. It was not reported who won the contest.

Free haircut at Sampler Festival

Monday, 06 May 2013 11:50

Dodge City Marshal Allen Baily, center, and Cowgirl Janie, both of the High Plains Public Radio Show “Western Swing and Other Things,” stop in on one of the historic exhibits Saturday at the Kansas Sampler Festival at Light Park in Liberal. The Marshal and Cowgirl Janie were doing their show live Saturday morning from the festival.

These youngsters get a chance to decorate cookies at one of the activity booths at the Kansas Sampler Festival this weekend at Light Park. L&T photos/Chris Linenbroker

Free haircut at Sampler Festival

Monday, 06 May 2013 11:50
