

Seven prairie dog pups play in the sun Thursday afternoon near the railroad tracks on the west side of Liberal. The dogs have set up a nice little colony despite efforts by the city to eliminate them. The colony doesn't create a threat to humans, as long as parents ensure their children don't try and molest them or catch them. Prairie dogs have been known to carry rabies.

L&T photo/Earl Watt