

Summer has officially kicked off now that school is out and the Adventure Bay Family Water Park opened on Memorial Day. The young lady above enjoys one of the slides Tuesday at the water park. LEFT: This family sits on the edge of a wading pool where hoops can be played while enjoying the fountain spraying cool water over the players. L&T photos/Robert Pierce