

Collision injures cyclist

Saturday, 01 June 2013 08:25

Between 4 and 4:30 p.m. Friday, a young male cyclist was eastbound on Second Street, when they attempted to turn north on to Clay Avenue. A GMC Yukon was headed west on Second as the cyclist made the turn, and he was struck by the Yukon, according to Liberal Police Department Capt. Pat McClurg. The rider was injured in the accident and transported to Southwest Medical Center. The driver of the Yukon, a 34-year-old female, was not injured, and no citations were issued.
