

ABOVE: The youth of Liberal gather to listen to the Nova band from the Church for All Nations youth group perform songs of praise on Saturday. Nova performed for the event Saturday Night LYFE, which is an activity planned by several churches in Liberal.

LEFT: Several teenagers participate in a game at the Saturday Night LYFE event. This game involved pulling people around trash cans to get them "out." Along with this, the event featured other games, food, speakers and live music. L&T photos/Victoria Calderon