

High school students learn about medical opportunities

Wednesday, 19 June 2013 12:11

Students entering grades 9 through 12 learned about Surgical Technology, as well as Medical Assistant, Respiratory Therapy, Medical Laboratory Technician, Sports Medicine and Nursing during the recent Allied Health Careers Camp at the Epworth Allied Health Education Center at Seward County Community College/Area Technical School. Courtesy photo