

Stroud National Agency (of Ruidoso, N.M.) is pleased to present the “Agent of the Month” award to Larry Lambert Insurance of Liberal. The agency qualified by writing the most new farm insurance business during the month of May 2013. They were in competition with more than 700 independent agents throughout the United States who produce farm business for Stroud National. Larry Lambert Insurance has been an established business in Liberal for more than nine years, with strong dedication to their clients in multi-lines of insurance, and has been an agent for Stroud National for 8 years. They have an excellent history of insuring the very best farm risks in their territory. The Flower Basket has delivered a beautiful fresh floral arrangement to the agency. Along with the floral arrangement, the agency has also received a cash award from Stroud National. Courtesy photo
