ABOVE: The women of the Needles and Friends Quilt Guild gather around a Quilt of Valor they made for those who serve the country. They worked all afternoon Tuesday on the quilts, and they made enough patches for 5 1/2 quilts. Eighteen Guild members worked on the quilts, and two even came all the way from Perryton to help.

LEFT: A table set up with information about the Quilts of Valor sits in the Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church on Tuesday. The church is where the Guild worked on the quilts. L&T photos/Victoria Calderon
