

Battle of the Badges BEGETS bragging rights

Friday, 09 August 2013 10:13

ABOVE: Red Cross staffers attend to blood donors Thursday afternoon at Western Avenue Church of Christ where the Red Cross was conducting its annual Battle of the Badges Blood Drive, where local emergency responders challenge each other to see who can donate the most blood. The winning department will be announced next week.

LEFT: A Red Cross nurse looks for a vein on Liberal Firefighter Tyson Rice's arm Thursday afternoon during the blood drive that challenges different departments to donate the most blood. L&T photos/Giseelle Arredondo