On Monday, at about 12:15 p.m., emergency responders were dispatched to 21st Street and Kansas Avenue for a report of an injury accident involving two vehicles, according to a statement released by Liberal Police Capt. Pat McClurg.

“Responding officers learned that a red, 2000 Chevy Venture driven by an 83-year-old female was traveling west on 21st Street and failed to yield to a black, 2013 Mercedes-Benz driven by a 65-year-old female who was traveling north on Kansas Avenue,” McClurg noted. “Both vehicles sustained disabling damage.

“The driver of the Mercedes-Benz was transported to Southwest Medical Center by Seward County EMS with non-life threatening injuries,” he added.

A citation for running a stop sign was issued to the driver of the Chevy Venture, according to McClurg
