

City addresses residents' concerns about mulch in park's playground

Friday, 27 September 2013 10:57

Crews with Liberal's Parks Department unload new wood chip mulch earlier today at the playground in Blue Bonnet Park. Several residents had voiced concerns about the lack of mulch around playground equipment, even though it is late in the season. Courtesy photo