- L&T staff report

Reunion plans for the Liberal High School classes of 1951, 1952, 1953 and 1954 have been scheduled for Friday and Saturday – along with the LHS Redskins Homecoming.

All of the reunion activities will take place at Mahuron Park in the Community Building with the exception of the parade and football game.

Things actually kick off Thursday evening with early visiting and decorating starting at 7 p.m. at the Community Building. Any of the alumni that would like to help are welcome to be a part of this meeting.

Registration for the Friday and Saturday events will begin at 10 a.m. Friday. Snacks will be available as well as coffee, tea and water. During the parade, the building will be closed so all who wish may be along the parade route.

Prior to the football game, a light supper will be provided. Those not wishing to attend the game may remain at the building for visiting and “catch up.” Following the game, anyone wishing to have more visiting time may return to the Mahuron Park Community Building.

Saturday morning, registration will begin again at 10 a.m. Reunion packets will be handed out and name tags provided.

A special luncheon is planned for the Class of '53 at noon to celebrate its “60” year. For information about this event, please contact Naomi Plett, 624-4536. Also, the Class of '54 will have a brunch at the home of Donna Nix Sunday morning. Information regarding that event may be obtained by calling 624-2372.

Saturday evening, class pictures will be taken at 5:30 p.m. prior to the evening meal and program. The reunion activities will conclude at 10 p.m. at the Community Building.

For more information, please call Barbara Wellman, 624-285; Helen Harrison, 624-5195; Naomi Plett, 624-4536; or Donna Nix, 624-2372.

Liberal High School Class of 1973 40th reunion also part of homecoming fun

The Liberal High School Class of 19973 is having its 40th reunion this weekend. Recommended donations are $20 per person.

Reunion registration will start at 1 p.m. Friday at Billy's Blue Duck BBQ. Class members will be at the homecoming parade at 2 p.m. and at the homecoming football game at 7 p.m.
