Fair board president Malin presents a plaque of appreciation to Jeff Louderback for his service to the fair board for 18 years. Louderback spent most of those years supervising the livestock entries and shows with the help of his wife, Teresa. L&T photos/Larry Phillips

- L&T staff report

At Thursday evening's Five State Fair Association's annual meeting, two additional fair board members were elected by the association.

Moving onto the fair board for three-year terms were Erin Russell and Larry Johnson. They join Norvan Correll, Russ Almes and Darrell Long as the five members on the fair board appointed by the association.
