- L&T staff report

Parents seeking non-traditional ways of trick or treating for their children where safety may be a concern can take advantage of several opportunities this Thursday on Halloween Day.

Two Trick or Treat Streets have been organized for children.

One will be from 4 to 6 p.m. Thursday at Emeritus at Liberal Springs located at 1500 Terrace Ave. The event is for children from pre-school ages to sixth grade.

Another Trick or Treat Street will be hosted by a variety of clubs and organizations at Seward
