

Klein delivers inspirational talks on Super Bowl Sunday

Former K-State quarterback and 2013 Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein, center, and his wife, Shalin, visit Sunday with Kansas State Senator Garrett Love during the Super Bowl Party at the Ag Building in Liberal. Klein volunteered to come to Liberal at the invitation of Pastor Rex Petty with Faith Tabernacle Church, where Klein spoke to the congregation Sunday morning. Klein also spoke at the Super Bowl party sponsored by the Liberal Ministerial Alliance, and he signed autographs for his fans afterward. Photo courtesy John Watson
