

ABOVE: Very little traffic was found on East Pine Street Monday night as snow accumulated and drifted in the ditches. The official amount of snow as of 9:30 this morning was reported as 5 inches, or .21 inches of moisture.

LEFT: Dorothy found herself back in Kansas Tuesday evening after all, maybe longing for the beautiful flowers and plants in Munchkin Land and Oz. L&T photos/Chris Linenbroker