- L&T staff report

A Kansas concealed carry handgun class will take place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at the Seward County Activity Center at 810 Stadium Ave. in Liberal.

The instructor is Don Leatherman, who is a certified concealed carry handgun instructor. The class is sponsored by Pioneer Firearms Supply of Liberal.

There is a one-hour lunch break, but lunch is not provided.

The class fee is $100 per student. Eye and ear protection is provided for range activities. Students must provide a valid Kansas driver's license or a valid Kansas non-driver's identification card. Students must provide their own handguns and ammunition.

Pre-registration is not required. However, class size is limited. For additional information, or to secure a position in this class, call 626-5644 or 629-0927, or e-mail pioneer@swko.net.

The eight-hour class is approved by the Kansas Attorney General's office and meets or exceeds the minimum requirements of the Kansas Concealed Carry Handgun Law.
