

Liberal Springs crowns Valentine Royalty

Thursday, 20 February 2014 13:46

---

Kendra Crane, the Life Enrichment Director of Emeritus at Liberal Springs, announced the center recently conducted its 2014 Valentine Royal Court Crowning. The Valentine Prince was Haskell Looney, the Princess was Myrtle Eisenhauer, and crowned King and Queen were Melbourne Headrick and Wanda Rundell, respectively. A steak and shrimp dinner was served to the residents and their families, and Lydia Augustine played her flute before the crowning of the royal court. The photo shows Princess Myrtle Eisenhauer, left, Queen Wanda Rundell, King Melbourne Headrick and Prince Haskell Looney toast each other at the recent 2014 Valentine Royal Court Crowning at Emeritus at Liberal Springs. Courtesy photo