

The entry deadline has been extended to noon Friday

- Pancake Day Board

Grab some pancake mix, add your own creative twist and enter the Pancake Day Cooking and Recipe Contest. The entry deadline has been extended to noon Friday and contest organizers are encouraging more people to enter. A total of cash and prizes valued at more than $400 to be awarded to the winners. The contest is open to anyone age 12 or older living within a 70-mile radius of Liberal.

Entrants are to create a unique dish using any type of pancake mix. The dish can be savory or sweet, a main, side, or dessert dish, a twist on traditional pancakes, or something totally the opposite of the “pancake” concept, as long as all rules are followed.

Prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third place, with entries judged on taste, originality and creativity, use of product and appetite appeal.

Grab some pancake mix; still time to enter Pancake Day cooking contest

Thursday, 27 February 2014 10:46

Those interested may download an entry form and rules from the website: www.pancake.net or pick up entry forms at the Pancake Hall of Fame, 318 N. Lincoln. Entries may be emailed to JoAnn Combs at combsja62@gmail.com or turned in at the Hall of Fame. The deadline to return completed entry forms is noon Friday.

Contestants will be given a copy of the contest rules when they register or may download them from the website. Judging will take place on Saturday at the Seward County Event Center. Entrants must prepare their dishes ahead of time and bring them to the Event Center between 9:45 and 10:15 a.m. on Saturday. The public is invited to attend and to sample the dishes after winners are announced.
