- Pancake Day Board

Four days of Pancake Day festivities will get under way Saturday with pancake flipping, eating and cooking contests at the Seward County Event Center, a Pancake Chase race Saturday afternoon and the Christian Artist Showcase featuring Andrew Peterson Saturday night at First Southern Baptist Church.

Saturday Morning: Eating, Flipping, Cooking (Seward County Event Center)

The eating and flipping contest winners will receive cash prizes and there is no entry fee. Registration for these contests begins at 9 a.m. Saturday. The flipping and eating contests will begin at 10 a.m. The winner in the flipping contest is the person who can flip a flapjack the most times in a three-minute period. (Division I flips for a shorter time.) This contest is open to all ages, with contestants flipping in three separate age divisions (I: 7 years and under; II: 8-13 years; and III: 14 years and older).

The pancake eating contest, set to begin immediately after the flipping contest is over, requires entrants to compete to see who can completely consume a set number of pancakes in the shortest amount of time.

The eating contest features the same three age divisions as the flipping contest.

The flapjacks will be the same size for everyone, about five inches in diameter. Division I contestants will be required to eat one pancake, division II pancake lovers will consume three flapjacks each, and those aged 14 and older will be hurrying to down five pancakes each. There is no entry fee for either contest.

The annual Pancake Day cooking and recipe contest, set for 10:30 a.m. Saturday, is open to anyone age 12 or older living within a 70-mile radius of Liberal. (Dishes must be checked in at the Event Center between 9:45-10:15 a.m.) Deadline to enter the cooking contest is noon Friday. The public is invited to attend and to sample the dishes after winners are announced.

Saturday Afternoon: Pancake Chase (Hall of Fame)

Can't get enough of the races? A Pancake Chase is set for 2 p.m. Saturday, sponsored by the Liberal Parks and Recreation Department. The Pancake Chase is a 5K and 1-mile walk/run prediction. Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. at the Hall of Fame, 318 N. Lincoln Ave. The race will start at 2 p.m. followed by a 1-mile walk/run prediction. Advance registration is encouraged.
