

No injuries in rural home fire

Friday, 14 March 2014 10:22

```
function get_style15883 () { return "none"; } function end15883_ () {
document.getElementById('elastomer15883').style.display = get_style15883(); }
```

The back of the house is engulfed in smoke as a firefighter continues to douse it with water in an attempt to get the fire under control. Mutual help was given by the Liberal Fire Department with one truck and four personnel, the Turpin Fire Department with two trucks and four personnel, the Seward County Sheriff's office, the American Red Cross and Seward County EMS. L&T photos/Robert Pierce

By ROBERT PIERCE

• Leader & Times

Around 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Seward County firefighters responded to a structure fire about one mile north of Liberal on U.S. Highway 83. Fire chief Mike Rice said the house in which the fire occurred sustained quite a bit of damage, particularly to the east and south side, with the southeast bedroom suffering some heat and smoke damage as well as water damage. Rice said the cause of the fire was ruled accidental, and he was unsure of the dollar loss of the property. No injuries were sustained in the fire, as no one was home at the time of the call. The fire, according to Rice, was ruled under control at 11:18 a.m., with the last unit leaving the scene at 12:38 p.m. Workers were back on scene for cleanup a little after 2 p.m. though.

No injuries in rural home fire

Friday, 14 March 2014 10:22

Today I want speak to you in the form in which it was necessary to turn up has already been given viagra for sale is a personal alternative of each person buy viagra must see every human being without support.

end15883_());