ABOVE: Firefighters from both Seward County and Liberal Fire Departments, along with Turpin Fire department, responded to a call of a prairie fire around 3:45 p.m. on Friday afternoon along U.S. Highway 83 about six miles north of Liberal on the west side of the highway just before County Road 11. The fire burned less than a quarter section of pasture land. Seward County Fire Chief Mike Rice said he would be able to have a detailed report available Monday, as firefighters had been busy with three rural fires on Thursday and Friday. L&T photo/Elly Grimm
