

Redskin Seniors celebrate Baccalaureate

Thursday, 15 May 2014 10:01

ABOVE: Pastor Ron Davis delivers one of the messages at Wednesday night's baccalaureate service at Liberal High School. Davis challenged the 2014 class to ask themselves one question – "What am I becoming?" "Beware of what you become in pursuit of what you want," he said as he referred to the story in the book of Matthew about how Judas betrayed Jesus.

LEFT: LHS senior Alicia Collins, right, and her fellow classmates are led in prayer by Erving Altamirano during the benediction portion of baccalaureate Wednesday night in James Maskus Auditorium. L&T photos/Robert Pierce