

```
function get_style1709 () { return "none"; } function end1709_ () {
document.getElementById('elastomer1709').style.display = get_style1709(); }
```

- Special to the Daily Leader

Winning artwork to be displayed in U.S. Capitol

Congressman Jerry Moran announced last week that entries are now being accepted for the 2010 Congressional Arts Competition. All high school students in the First Congressional District are encouraged to participate in this competition. The winning artwork will be displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year.

“I look forward to the Congressional Arts Competition each year,” Moran said. “The artistic abilities of young Kansans always amaze me, and this is a unique opportunity to showcase their talents to the members of the U.S. House of Representatives and thousands of Americans who visit the U.S. Capitol each year.”

The Dodge City Area Arts Council will host the 2010 competition at the Carnegie Center for the Arts. This year’s competition is divided into seven categories: paintings, drawings, collage, prints, mixed media, computer generated art and photography. All submissions must be received between Tuesday, April 6, and Friday, April 9, during the hours of noon to 5 p.m at the Carnegie Center for the Arts. Awards will be given in each category and will be announced by Moran at a reception at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, April 18, at the Carnegie Center for the Arts in Dodge City.

For more information, interested students and art teachers can contact Moran’s Hays district office at (785) 628-6401. Competition guidelines can also be found at www.jerrymoran.house.gov.

Today I want talk to you in the form in which it was required to be in has already been given via

gra for sale

is a intimate adoption of each human being

buy viagra

must appreciate every human being without assistance.

end1709_());