The crowd makes its way down Kansas Avenue Saturday morning in the Liberal March for Jesus. The march started at Tobias Park at Fifth and Lincoln, went directly north to Sixth and Lincoln before turning to go on to Kansas Avenue, where the group then went south to Second Street. Before reaching Second Street, however, the crowd stopped at City Hall at Fourth and Kansas to pray for the City of Liberal. At Second and Kansas, the group would then turn west back to Lincoln, where they next went north back to Tobias Park for more activities.
