

The first Northeast Liberal Leadership's Yard of the Week for 2014 is at 501 E. Eighth Street. Robert and Johnnie Ruth Love are the winners. They have lived at this address for many years and strive hard to keep their yard looking neat and tidy at all times. Their yard ranges from having yucca plants out front next to the street, to having well maintained grass, nice flower beds and shrubs in the yard. Be sure to stop by and look at their yard and tell them how nice it looks if you get a chance. We will be on the prowl next Wednesday to find the next yard of the week. We have been blessed with rains the last couple of weeks. Keep them mower blades sharp and the weed eaters cranking. Courtesy photo
