

STILL TIME TO ENJOY LOCAL HOLIDAY DECORATIONS

Monday, 27 December 2010 12:01

This home in northern Liberal primarily uses red lighting to decorate the lawn and tree, including the candy canes that line the walkway to the porch. Most people leave the decorations up until the first of the year, so people who have yet to get out in the evening and see the lights still have time, and the weather is accommodating. L&T photo/Earl Watt