The Forgan got off to a fast start, and never allowed the Beaver Dusters to recover. The Bulldogs defeated the Dusters for the second time this season, 72-39.

“They full-court pressed us non-stop,” Dusters coach Garrett Bebermeyer said. “We probably turned the ball over 30 times; we didn’t even get a lot of shots off. They just sped us up so much, and were subbing in. They pretty much outran us. We were just outmatched.”

In the first quarter, Forgan jumped out to a 19-8 lead. Beaver went on a run to cut the lead to nine, but the Bulldogs still ended the quarter with a 16-10 advantage in the second quarter. The Bulldogs were just one point shy of doubling-up the Dusters at half (31-18).

The Bulldog lead expanded over 20 in the third (54-31), and an 18-8 fourth made it a 33-point margin at the end.

Jake Regier led the Bulldogs offense with 25 points; Chandler Bryer had 12. Trent Brown and Demetrius Alston each added 8. Ten Bulldogs in total scored.

For Beaver, Garrett Weber scored 10, and Logan Baldwin added 8. Eight different Dusters scored.

No.1 Forgan (17-1) played No.2 Fargo (18-4), who defeated Laverne 58-55 in their semifinal, Saturday night for the Buffalo Tournament Championship.

Beaver (11-6) faced No.9 Laverne (13-4) for third place Saturday evening.

Laverne is a tough matchup, and one of the few teams that can match us inside," Bebermeyer said. "It will be a good challenge for our big guys."
