

Several Liberal athletes topped the charts for All Western Athletic Conference honors.

By EARL WATT

• Daily Leader

Sammy Duque was selected as the Player of the Year in soccer and Lori Navarro was the Coach of the Year after winning the WAC and advancing to the Final Four in Class 5A.

Cesar Jurado, Nestor Morales, Carlos Ruiz and Alfredo Garcia were listed on the ALL WAC first team. Omar Palma was recognized with an honorable mention.

Nate Davis received Player of the Year honors in football in the WAC.

Kevin Lam, David Hawk, Berakah Carter and Eric Brown were listed on the All WAC offensive team while Michael Cummins, Chuy Torres, Tyler Sutherland and Kyle Potts were listed on the defensive All WAC squad.

Receiving honorable mentions were punter Austen Pitts, kicker Eusbio Lopez and kick returner Lavendrick Martin.

Hugo Cano was the Coach of the Year in volleyball, and MaKayla McPhail was the Player of the Year.

Brittany Odle and Katie Burnett earned All WAC honors while Ashlyn Westerman and Caitlyn Bauer received honorable mentions.

Daily Leader photo/Earl Watt

Lori Navarro was selected as the Wetsern Athletic Cnference Coach of the Year in soccer. Her goalie, Sammy Duque, was picked as the Player of the Year.