The top-ranked Forgan Bulldogs made their first playoff game look like a formality, defeating the Goodwell Eagles 76-34.

Jake Regier led the Bulldogs offense with 28 points, all in the first three quarters. David Stout scored 12, Demetrius Alston 11, and Trevin Lopez added 9.

One odd note was that Forgan, at team that has lived at times off of their perimeter shooting, did not make a single three-point basket.
