A late Wichita South goal led to a 3-2 loss for the Lady Redskins in the Titan Classic.

Liberal fell behind early when South scored a goal, but the Lady Redskins tied the game, and at half the game was tied 1-1.

South scored first in the second half, and again the Lady Redskins responded to tie the game. Neither team scored until the final 30 seconds when Lady Redskin goalkeeper Magali Vazquez made a block, but South caught the rebound and scored for the 3-2 win.

Liberal had 11 shots on goal. Vazquez had six saves. Freshman Carolina Limon scored both goals for Liberal.
