Take one hit away from the Hutchinson in the final game of a four-game series, and Seward would have swept the Blue Dragons.

But that one hit was costly.

Trailing 3-2 in the final game of the series, Hutchinson's G. Guild hit a grand slam in the sixth inning to stave off the Seward sweep.

The Saints added two more runs in the seventh to cut the lead to 6-5, but Seward could not score the tying run and lost the one-run affair.
