

Several Liberal Bee Jays and local supporters gathered at the home of Don and Nancy Parsons July 3 for a recreational tournament. The group played shuffleboard, pool, ping pong and darts in a friendly competition a day before the Bee Jays Fourth of July game against Dodge City. The Parsons are one of many host families that provide room in their homes for the Bee Jay players during the summer. L&T photo/Heather Watt