The Beaver Dusters faced a top ten team for the second straight week and suffered a similar fate, losing 49-13 at Texhoma. Texhoma scored three times in the first quarter including an 87-yard pass play from Jacob Test to Nathan Kniting to take a 22-0 lead. The Red Devils added four more TDs in the second to take a 49-0 lead into halftime.

Beaver finally got on the board with a 19-yard touchdown run by Hadley Skaggs in the third.

Tomas Konkell scored on a 4-yard run for the final Duster score midway through the fourth quarter.

Beaver was outgained 383 to 143, and committed two turnovers to none for Texhoma.

Beaver (1-3, 0-1) will travel to Oklahoma Bible Friday.
