

Lady Saints dominate Barton

Friday, 05 February 2010 13:25

```
function get_style1363 () { return "none"; } function end1363_ () {
document.getElementById('elastomer1363').style.display = get_style1363(); }
```

Kendra Spreser sprints by Barton's Annie Kossongo for a basket in the second half of the Lady Saints game with Barton County Wednesday. Daily Leader photo/Rustin Watt

Lady Saints dominate Barton

By EARL WATT

- Daily Leader

The Lady Saints may not get all of the bad taste from Hutchinson out of their mouths in one game, but Wednesday's drubbing of Barton County might be the first Tic Tac.

After a tough road game with the Lady Blue Dragons Monday, Seward returned home and handed the Lady Cougars an 87-64 loss.

After a 7-7 start to the game, there was little doubt of the outcome the rest of the night.

The Lady Saints went on a 20-2 run after an early time out by Seward coach Toby Wynn to take a 27-9 lead.

The Lady Saints kept the pressure on the rest of the half and took a 39-23 lead to the break.

Another patented Lady Saints run in the second half ballooned the lead to 33 when Vaneza Junior connected on a three-pointer to give the Lady Saints a 75-41 lead.

Three times in the second half Wynn cleared his bench to keep fresh legs on the court and pressure the Lady Cougars.

And the constant pressure wreaked havoc, forcing 29 Lady Cougar turnovers.

"I was anxious to see how we would respond," Wynn said. "We had good energy. We played a good game tonight."

In looking back at the Hutch game, Wynn said the Arena is a true home court advantage.

"It's a tough place to shoot," he said. "Unless you practice there every day, you're not used to shooting in an open arena. This was a more comfortable setting for us."

Junior turned in a strong night, scoring 27 points to lead all scorers. Rachel Barnes had 21, Nadia Rosario scored 19, and Kendra Spresser had 14.

"Tameka (Sanchez) played well for us," Wynn said. "There was a couple of times she was guarding Hannah. It was probably the only time that has happened since they were teammates last year (at Liberal High School). It was good to see them both play well tonight."

Seward hosts Pratt Saturday.

Today I will say to you in the form in which it was necessary to go into has already been given viagra for sale
is a personal selection of each man buy viagra
must comprehend every person without assist.

end1363_();